

Knife & Edged Weapon Awareness

Why is the course important/ Course Overview

This course is an ideal addition to any of the personal safety courses as it focuses on the dangers of knives and improvised edged weapons. Commonly held perceptions of these weapons are challenged and awareness levels are raised.

The key objectives of the course are:

- Common myths regarding Edged weapons
- Crime statistics Legislation regarding knives and offensive weapons
- Situational awareness and defensive tactics

This course does not include any physical techniques and is solely for awareness. This course is ideal for all employees whose role may bring them into contact with the public.

Duration of Course:

2 Hours contact time

Previous Learning Requirements:

There are no formal entry requirements for this qualification.

Assessment:

Additional Information:

This course does not include any physical techniques and is solely for awareness. This course is ideal for all employees whose role may bring them into contact with the public.

Refresher/ Development Training:

It is recommended this course is revisited every two years.

Course Fees: Price available on request

How do I find out more? Contact Specific Training